

Writing a Description

Exercise 3

The picture below is “Wellington at Waterloo” by Robert Alexander Hillingford.

Describe the picture. Your writing must contain:

- a detailed description of the people and objects you see;
- a brief description of the battle (date, location, participants, result).

Use and underline the following words in your writing: infantry, canon, equipped, invade, emperor. You can change the given words to make them grammatically suitable.

Write your answer in 120–150 words.
